

Professor Roel van den Cate

- Position: Dean of the School of Doctoral Studies (European Union)
- Responsibilities: The Dean of the SDS is a position which officer becomes elected by Heads of the four Departments of the School, to take responsibility of Leadership on SDS's administration affairs with analogue functions to those of the Chief Executive.
- Nationality: Dutch
- Highest Academic Degrees and Schools: PhD in Business Studies by the Universiteit van Amsterdam; Professor of Management Science at the School of Doctoral Studies (European Union)
- Membership: Member and President of the Scholarly Council for Business Research (European Union); Member of the European Academy of Management; Researcher of the Business Intelligence Service of London, UK
- Professional Relevant Experience: Director of the European Business Technology Development Centre in Amsterdam, The Netherlands